

Central Kansas Community Corrections

Funded by the Kansas Department of Corrections and the Juvenile Justice Authority.

Serves Barton, Ellsworth, Rice, Russell and Stafford Counties.
Administrative Services provided by Barton County.

Offering intensive supervision for offenders in the community, CKCC's #1 priority is to provide public safety. For this reason, and as a degree of punishment for their crimes, offenders are closely supervised by Officers who:

Monitor attendance at work or school,

Restrict associations and mandate curfews,

Impose limits on offender movement,

Conduct testing to identify any drug or alcohol abuse,

and Requires treatment interventions for behavioral rehabilitation.
