DIVERSION INFORMATION

The Rice County Attorney has established a Diversion Program for some traffic offenders. The County Attorney will determine whether to offer diversion based upon all relevant information. Your driving record will be reviewed. Those with excessive driving offenses will not qualify for diversion.

Diversion is a privilege and not a right, there is no presumption in favor of diversion in any case and the defendant is required to show that diversion will serve the ends of justice and interest of the community. The County Attorney may deny the application for diversion for any reason permitted by law. If accepted, the defendant will enter into an agreement for pretrial diversion. The proceedings shall be continued for six (6) months at defendant's request. Upon successful completion of diversion, the charges will be dismissed. Failure to successfully complete diversion will result in the case being set for trial.
